

Love Australia. Love Port Stephens.

Sure we've got a groovy looking opera house and a pretty amazing bridge... but if you scoot up the freeway - just 2.5 hours north of Sydney - you'll find a little piece of paradise where you can indulge in the very best Australia has to offer in one stunning location. Port Stephens.

Discover this foodies mecca with the freshest of produce from the land and sea... enjoy lobster and oysters at a waterfront restaurant to farmgate fresh avocados and macadamias. The sky's the limit for the more adventurous from helicopter flights and parasailing to kayaking and mountain biking or horse riding. Get up close and personal with our wildlife from dolphins and humpback whales to seals and cuddly koalas.

With 26 beaches, a pristine bay twice the size of Sydney Harbour, the largest sand dunes in the southern hemisphere and an abundance of natural wonders - it's little wonder visitors find a lot to love at Port Stephens! We'd love you to visit and see what everyone's raving about - so turn the page for some great bonus deals to enjoy when you visit us! PS I Love you!

Ten things you'll love about Port Stephens!

1. Deliciousness!

Make like a local and pick up some home made condiments or the freshest of produce from our many farmgate or roadside stalls. Try our local oysters, seafood, macadamias, figs, olives, cheese, fruit, avocados, wines and brews.

2. Water water everywhere!

With a bay more than twice the size of Sydney Harbour and over 20? stunning beaches, there's a water activity to suit everyone - jetboating, parasailing, paddleboarding, surfing, kayaking, fishing, sailing or snorkelling... to name a few!

3. A new perspective!

Take in the 360 degree views at the Gan Gan Lookout and learn about the local history through the innovative display units. Or walk to the top of Tomaree Headland Lookout to enjoy striking views of Port Stephens and the offshore islands. It will take you approximately 30 minutes, depending on your fitness level, but it really is breathtaking!

4. Sand-sational dunes!

The Worimi Conservation Lands (Stockton Beach Sand Dunes) are truly one of nature's masterpieces, stretching for 32 kilometres these are the largest dunes of their kind in the Southern Hemisphere. You can explore by foot, in your own 4WD, ride a quad bike or join a 4WD tour and sandboard down 30 metre high dunes!

5. On your bike!

With rugged mountain biking along coastal tracks to family friendly cycle paths, Port Stephens is a great place to explore by bike. Bring your own or hire once here and call into the visitors centre for maps on where to cycle.

6. A Round of Golf

Surrounded by natural bushland and an abundance of wildlife, the golf courses in Port Stephens offer challenges and rewards for players of all standards. What better way to enjoy a game of golf with your event in the beautiful surroundings of Port Stephens.

7. Something to spout about!

Take a cruise on the bay and meet our friendly resident pod of Bottlenose dolphins. With over 140 dolphins making the bay home its no wonder Port Stephens is recognised as the dolphin capital of Australia. From late May to early November, the waters off Port Stephens play host to the magnificent acrobatic displays of migrating humpback whales. Whale-watching cruises provide a ringside seat, but the shoreline around Fingal Bay and Anna Bay, just south of Nelson Bay, are also great viewing spots.

8. Fishing

The ultimate deep water fishing experience! The local waterways cater for anglers of all levels of experience. Species of fish common to the area include bream, flathead, whiting, leatherjacket and groper. One of the benefits of fishing in Port Stephens is that you are witness to the sights and experiences such as whales, giant turtles, dolphins and fairy penguins. Port Stephens holds many world records for game fishing.

9. Humps & hooves

There's no better way to experience the beautiful surrounds than on horseback. Enjoy one of the scenic guided trails or an amazing beach and dune ride... a memorable experience for beginners to the most experienced rider. Want a better view and a slower pace? A camel ride on the beach could be just the thing!

10. Dive Right In

Fly Point Park is located on the headland between Nelson Bay and Little Beach. Enjoy a picnic, then hit the water with your snorkel and goggles to explore the marine life this area has to offer. Discover sea life and sponge gardens ... a thriving underwater oasis awaits.

P.S. I love you xx
